THE PRAYER FOR THE DAY

Christian Long	Matthew Castro	Kenneth Markworth	Jeanette Geweke
Dan Horton	Calvin Clements	Laurie Strohmayer	Rosemarie Morgen

Donna Jitchotvisut

the help of your power, that illness may be turned into health and our sorrow into joy; through Jesus Christ. Amen

FOR OUR PARTICIPATION IN THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

Draw your church together, O God, into one great company of disciples, together following our teacher Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving in Christ's mission to the world, and together witnessing to your love wherever you will send us; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

REMEMBER THOSE SERVING IN THE ARMED FORCES

Almighty God, we commit to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad:

Nicholas Bakulinski Jeremy Strohmayer Dan McCarthy Lucas Kratz Preston Larson

Defend them with your heavenly grace and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PEACE PRAYER

Give us, O God, the vision which can see your love in the world in spite of human failure. Give us the faith to trust your goodness in spite of our ignorance and weakness. Give us the knowledge that we may continue to pray with understanding hearts. And show us what each one of us can do to set forward the coming of the day of universal peace. Amen

Lord, take my hand and lead me upon life's way;

Without your grace and favor I go astray;

Lord, when the shadows lengthen and night has come,
I know that you will strengthen my steps toward home,
then nothing can impede, O blessed Friend!
so, take my hand and lead me unto the end.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Let us pray...

WORD _____

Sit First Reading Job 38:1-11

The reading concludes: The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 107:1-3, 23-32

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good,
for God's mercy endures forever.
Let the redeemed of the Lord proclaim that God redeemed them from the hand of the foe, gathering them in from the lands;
from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
Some went down to the sea in ships, plying their trade in deep waters.

They beheld the works of the Lord,
God's wonderful works in the deep.
Then God spoke, and a stormy wind arose,
which tossed high the waves of the sea.
They mounted up to the heavens and descended to the depths;
their souls melted away in their peril.
They staggered and reeled like drunkards,
and all their skill was of no avail.
Then in their trouble they cried to the Lord,
and you delivered them from their distress.
You stilled the storm to a whisper
and silenced the waves of the sea.
Then were they glad when it grew calm,
when you guided them to the harbor they desired.
Let them give thanks to you, Lord, for your steadfast love and your wonderful works for all people.
Let them exalt you in the assembly of the people;
in the council of the elders, let them sing hallelujah!

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

The reading concludes: The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Eternal Father, strong to save, whose arm has bound the restless wave, who bade the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep:
oh, hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

O Savior, whose almighty word the winds and waves submissive heard,
who walked upon the foaming deep, and calm amid the storm didst sleep;
oh, hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

O Holy Spirit, who didst brood upon the chaos dark and rude,
and bid its angry tumult cease, and give, for wild confusion, peace:
oh, hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and pow'r, all trav'lers guard in danger's hour from rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them where so e'er they go;
thus evermore shall rise to thee glad hymns and praise from land and sea.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS
June 20, 2021

Today
Sundays after Pentecost – Lectionary 12

Our long liturgical season of growth continues. On the altar, the green shoots are but a promise of the lush growth this season will eventually produce. Each week this sapling will grow, its colors mirroring the greens of the season. As the strips extend across the altar, they will form a cross that will ultimately enfold the entire space with every color of the growing season. We, the baptized congregation, are like these diverse strips: together we form the Body of Christ—one body composed of many diverse members.

Introduction to the Day

Now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation! Now we are in the storm, the boat almost swamped; but Jesus is here now, and when we call him he will calm the storm. Even the wind and waves listen to him as they would to their creator. We also listen to him and are called to believe in the power of God’s word in him, a power greater than all that we fear.

Baptized in Christ

We welcome into the family of God, Dietrich William Lutze baptized into the faith this morning. May Dietrich William grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
