SAINT LUKE CHURCH

A warm welcome to all who gather in the name of Christ this morning. If you are looking for a church home, we hope you will consider Saint Luke Church.

Please enter the church using the Courtyard entrance.

Out of an abundance of caution everyone is required to wear a mask in the church and during the service.

Everyone must sign in and have their temperature taken, which will not be recorded. Please go right to your seat after you have signed in.

There will be no singing by the congregation and responses and prayers should be spoken quietly.

Sharing of the Peace will be done in place and without contact. A nod toward the neighbor, a bow of the head, a wave or other signs of mutual spiritual respect can be used.

Following the service an usher will dismiss you from your seat. Please exit immediately. Pastor will greet people in the courtyard, weather permitting.

Free parking is available in the parking garage behind the church. Enter from Melrose St. (one block north of Belmont).

If there is anything else we can do to assist your worship experience, please let the ushers know.

Hymn Holy God, We Praise Your Name

Holy God, we praise your name; Lord of all, we bow before you.
All on earth your scepter claim, all in heav'n above adore you.
Infinite your vast domain, everlasting is your reign.

Hark! The glad celestial hymn angel choirs above are raising;
cherubim and seraphim, in unceasing chorus praising,
fill the heav'ns with sweet accord: "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"

Lo, the apostolic train join your sacred name to hallow;
prophets swell the glad refrain, and the white-robed martyrs follow;
and from morn to set the sun through the church the song goes on.

Holy Father, Holy Son, Holy Spirit, three we name you, though in essence only one; undivided God we claim you
and, adoring, bend the knee while we own the mystery.

Stand Hymn of the Day

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!

Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.

Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty!

God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee,
casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
which wert and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee, though the eye of sinfulness thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
perfect in pow'r, in love and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Sit Athanasian Creed

Whoever wants to be saved

should above all cling to the catholic faith.

Whoever does not guard it whole and inviolable

will doubtless perish eternally.

Now this is the catholic faith:

We worship one God in trinity

and the Trinity in unity,

neither confusing the persons

nor dividing the divine being.

For the Father is one person,

the Son is another,

and the Spirit is still another.

But the deity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

is one, equal in glory,

coeternal in majesty.

What the Father is,

the Son is,

and so is the Holy Spirit.

Uncreated is the Father;

uncreated is the Son;

uncreated is the Spirit.

The Father is infinite;

the Son is infinite;

the Holy Spirit is infinite.

Eternal is the Father;

eternal is the Son;

eternal is the Spirit:

And yet there are not three eternal beings,

but one who is eternal;

as there are not three uncreated and unlimited beings,

but one who is uncreated and unlimited.

Almighty is the Father;

almighty is the Son;

almighty is the Spirit:

And yet there are not three almighty beings,
but one who is almighty.

Thus the Father is God;
the Son is God;
the Holy Spirit is God:

And yet there are not three gods, but one God.
Thus the Father is Lord;
the Son is Lord;
the Holy Spirit is Lord:

And yet there are not three lords,
but one Lord.

As Christian truth compels us to acknowledge
each distinct person as God and Lord,
so catholic religion forbids us
to say that there are three gods or lords.

The Father was neither made
nor created nor begotten;

the Son was neither made nor created,
but was alone begotten of the Father;

the Spirit was neither made nor created,
but is proceeding from the Father and the Son.

Thus there is one Father, not three fathers;
one Son, not three sons;
one Holy Spirit, not three spirits.

And in this Trinity, no one is before or after,
greater or less than the other;
but all three persons are in themselves, coeternal
and coequal;
and so we must worship the Trinity in unity
and the one God in three persons.

Whoever wants to be saved should think thus about the Trinity.

It is necessary for eternal salvation that one also faithfully believe that our Lord Jesus became flesh.

For this is the true faith that we believe and confess:
That our Lord Jesus Christ, God's Son,

is both God and man.
He is God, begotten before all worlds
from the being of the Father,
and he is man, born in the world
from the being of his mother--
existing fully as God,
and fully as man
with a rational soul and a human body;
equal to the Father in divinity,
subordinate to the Father in humanity.

Although he is God and man,
he is not divided,
but is one Christ.
He is united because God
has taken humanity into himself;
he does not transform deity into humanity.

He is completely one in the unity of his person, without confusing his natures.

For as the rational soul and body are one person,
so the one Christ is God and man.

He suffered death for our salvation.
He descended into hell
and rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

At his coming all people shall rise bodily
to give an account of their own deeds.
Those who have done good will enter eternal life,
those who have done evil will enter eternal fire.

This is the catholic faith.
One cannot be saved
without believing this firmly and faithfully.

After each petition: Remember your compassion and love:

Send your Spirit, Lord, hear our prayer.

The presiding minister continues to thank and praise God, remembering especially the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and his promise and command to celebrate this meal.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Prayer for those who will not receive

Lord Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Voices Raised to You Voices raised to you we offer; tune them, God, for songs of praise. Hearts and hands we bring in tribute for your gifts through all our days. Alleluia! Alleluia! Triune God, to you we sing!

Christ, the song of love incarnate, touching earth with heaven's grace, for your living, suffering dying, for your rising, hear our praise! Alleluia! Alleluia! Christ, redeemer, Lord of life!

Spirit, flaming through creation, kindle faith within each heart. Lift our voices high in chorus; through our hands your love impart, Alleluia! Alleluia! Spirit, helper, breath of life!

How can any praise we offer measure all the thanks we owe? Take our hearts and hands and voices gifts of love we can bestow. Alleluia! Alleluia! Triune God, to you we sing!

NEWS and INFORMATION

May 30, 2021

Introduction to the Day

When we say God is the triune God, we are saying something about who God is beyond, before, and after the universe: that there is community within God. Our experience of this is reflected in Paul's words today. When we pray to God as Jesus prayed to his Abba (an everyday, intimate parental address), the Spirit prays within us, creating between us and God the same relationship Jesus has with the one who sent him.

Today

This morning we are in transition. The festival portion of the church year ended last Sunday with the Day of Pentecost. And, while today we retain the festival environment to mark the octave of that celebration, next Sunday we begin the “ordinary” portion of the church year. The term ordinary does not suggest “without special meaning.” It refers to the numerical ordering of the Sundays that follow the season of great feasts. This long season following our observance of Lent and festivals of Easter and Pentecost is a time for growth and reflection-- a time for the great events of the salvation history to take root and bear fruit in our lives.

Memorial Day

Remember both those who died in the defense of our country and those who are still living among us and bear the wounds and scars of wars long gone. Let us remember also the parents and other loved ones who remain to carry a silent burden of grief not only on Memorial Day, but every day. Pray that God might give them the comfort of His Holy Spirit and protect those who continue to defend our freedom as men and women in uniform.

Church and school offices will be closed, Monday, May 31, 2021 to commemorate the holiday.
